

Historic Roscoe Village Covers Bridges

Contact: Debbie McDonald
800-877-1830 or 740-623-6553
Historic Roscoe Village
600 North Whitewoman Street
Coshocton, OH 43812

For Immediate Release
March 15, 2010

Coshocton, OH – It won't surprise you to learn that the Roscoe Village Visitor Center offers some wonderful Coshocton County history books! Now available -- The Covered Bridges of Coshocton County: A History by Terry E. Miller of Kent, Ohio.

This magnificent book holds the history of Coshocton County's covered bridges and includes some basic construction techniques that are sure to intrigue anyone interested in local history.

The Covered Bridges of Coshocton County: A History features several biographical sketches of men associated with the building of these magnificent bridges of a bygone era. Readers can view many outstanding historical photographs along with a list of all 95 covered bridges that were built in Coshocton County.

The Roscoe Village Visitor Center houses many remarkable history books for your reading pleasure! Whether it be history of the canals or the McGuffey Readers, you're sure to find what you are looking for. So stop by, browse through the wonderful selection of books and take your own personal history lesson home with you today!

For additional information, please call 740-622-7644 or 800-877-1830. You may also visit our website at www.roscoevillage.com. Featured in Neil Zurcher's One Tank Trips, Historic Roscoe Village is a 19th century living history community depicting life in Ohio's Canal Era. Roscoe Village is located on State Routes 16 and 83 near the junction of US Route 36 in east-central Ohio.

###