

Roscoe Village Special Events

Dulcimer Days, 33rd Annual May 17-20, 2007

Historic Roscoe Village salutes dulcimer music at its annual Dulcimer Days festival and competition. The festival, hosted by Roscoe Village, is held at the nearby Coshocton Lake Park Pavilion and will feature the Mid-Eastern Regional Hammered and Mountain Dulcimer Championships. Dulcimer Days is the oldest dulcimer festival in Ohio and the second longest running festival in the world. Guests will participate in hammered and mountain dulcimer, harp and bowed psaltery workshops; open, vocal, and duet contests; and a Saturday evening concert featuring two prominent dulcimer musicians. Approximately 1,400 guests are expected to attend Dulcimer Days with more than 70 contestants participating in a variety of dulcimer competitions throughout the weekend.

Corvettes at Roscoe Cruise-In June 10, 2007

Over 300 corvettes will converge on Roscoe Village at this event hosted by the Classic Glass Corvette Club. Stroll through the streets of Roscoe Village to the tunes of 50's and 60's music as you admire your favorite car and talk to its proud owner.

Heritage Craft & Olde Time Music Festival, 28th Annual June 16-17, 2007

Experience the rich heritage of Roscoe Village and its surrounding area through the sights, sounds, and traditional crafts of the 1800s. Watch the blacksmith's anvil ring, the weaver spinning wool, and the demonstrations of heritage crafters selling their traditional hand-made wares. Listen as the sounds of bluegrass, dulcimer, and old-time music drift through the air and the strings of the fiddle lure you in. Hone your musical skills by participating in the hammered dulcimer, fiddle, guitar, and dance workshops, or let your competitive side show as you compete in the flat-pick guitar contest. In addition to hosting a display by the Coshocton Art Guild, Roscoe has captured the true essence of canal heritage, and every guest can experience one special weekend filled with music, traditional crafters, jam sessions, and art exhibits.

Civil War Reenactment, 8th Annual July 21-22, 2007

Experience the drama of the War Between the States as Historic Roscoe Village becomes a battlefield. Guests are invited to stroll through the camps, talk with living historians, listen to the music of the era, share a campfire, and experience a soldier's way of life first-hand as he prepares for battle. The weekend will include military skirmishes and drills, medical scenarios, speeches by President Abraham Lincoln, a military car, camp laundress, night fire, educational presentations, children's activities, and more.

Coshocton Canal Festival, 38th Annual August 18-19, 2007

Commemorating the landing of the first canal boat, the Monticello, at Port Roscoe on August 21, 1830, the Coshocton Canal Festival features an invitational craft festival; a Grande Parade; a Children's Pedal Tractor Pull; traditional craft demonstrators; living historians; contests for all ages; food booths; canal boat rides; a fiddle contest; and bluegrass entertainment.

Fall Garden Fair September 15, 2007

This one-day event features many activities to interest the novice or avid gardener! A select group of garden and craft vendors will be set up on the sidewalks of Roscoe Village along with a Question & Answer booth manned by Coshocton County's Master Gardeners. Guests can stroll through the gardens of Roscoe Village or take part in a 'Park & Walk' tour of private gardens above Roscoe Village. A plant sale, guest speaker, kid's activities, and garden art complete the events when we present the second Fall Garden Fair!

Apple Butter Stirrin', 38th Annual October 19-21, 2007

With over 100 crafters, this invitational craft festival celebrates the sights, sounds and scents of autumn. Smell the fresh apple butter simmering over an open fire as you stroll through the street to the tunes of bluegrass and old-time music. Watch cooking demonstrations, participate in a craft auction or a hog-calling contest, sign up for a quilt raffle. Events throughout the weekend will include living history tours, canal boat rides, musical entertainment and children's activities.

Christmas Candlelightings December 1, 8, & 15, 2007

The first three Saturdays in December, Roscoe Village cheers on the holiday season with its Christmas Candlelighting Ceremonies. Share in the tradition of lighting the Christmas tree and participate in lighting your own candle as "Silent Night" is sung throughout the crowd. Over the weekend, guests can enjoy a visit with Santa, strolling carolers, live reindeer (December 1 only), chestnuts roasting over an open fire, candlelight tours, complimentary hot-mulled cider and cookies and many other holiday festivities.
