COSHOCTON, Ohio – The third installment of the Civil War Lecture Series at Historic Roscoe Village will be held at 2pm on Sunday, August 7 in the Visitor Center Theater.

Female Spies of the Civil War will be presented by Sharon Hunter. Sharon is a lifelong resident of Coshocton County whose love of history began in childhood. She is a freelance writer and has worked for the Coshocton Tribune, Sugarcreek Budget, Bargain Hunter and Holmes County Journal. She has also been published in Country Living Rural Electric Magazine. In 2009 her article “The Moon Sisters, Ohio’s Confederate Sister Spies” has led to speaking engagements on the pair for both the Cambridge and Holmes County Civil War roundtables, Licking and Coshocton County Genealogy Societies and the Coffee Club at the Coshocton Library.

This lecture series is free of charge, but donations to defray speakers’ fees are gladly accepted. For more information, please contact the Roscoe Village Visitor Center at 740.622.7644 ext.12.

For more information on Historic Roscoe Village, please call (800) 877-1830 or (740) 622-9310 or visit our web-site at www.roscoevillage.com. Featured in Neil Zurcher's One Tank Trips, Roscoe Village is a 19th century living history community depicting life in Ohio's Canal Era. The Village is located on State Routes 16 and 83 near the junction of US Route 36 in east-central Ohio.
