COSHOCTON, Ohio - On Sunday, June 12, 2011 Historic Roscoe Village welcomes back the Classic Glass Corvette Club. From 10:00am to 4:00pm, enjoy summer fun and free admission as over 250 Corvettes converge in Historic Roscoe Village during the 13th annual Corvettes at Roscoe Village Cruise-In. Car enthusiasts and casual spectators alike can stroll through the Village to the 50s and 60s tunes of DJ Dave Lear as hundreds of collectors display their vehicles.

Inspired by the '54 Corvette, the Roscoe Village Choice Award is a unique trophy created by Master Blacksmith Brad Birkhimer. This is the third year Birkhimer has hand-forged the award for the event.

While you're here, Roscoe Village invites you to enjoy our Civil War: On the Home Front guided tour at 11am and 2pm - $9.95 for adults and $4.95 for students. Don't forget there are over 20 shops to browse – several of which are new to the village – 3 restaurants, outdoor dining, gardens, the free Toy Cellar exhibit, the Johnson-Humrickhouse Museum, and rides on the Monticello III horse-drawn canal boat to round out your day in the Village!
